CDEM Curriculum

<https://www.saem.org/cdem/education/online-education/cdem>

EMRA/CORD Student Advising Guide

<https://www.cordem.org/resources/education--curricula/advisingguide/>

EMRA Match

<https://webapps.emra.org/utills/spa/match#/search/map>

The screenshot shows the EMRA Match search interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'R' (Residency), 'C' (Continuing Education), and 'F' (Fellowship). Below the tabs is a search bar and several filters: Program Length, Accreditation, Primary Training Site, and CDEM in Title. The main area is a map of the United States with numerous red location pins indicating residency programs. The text 'Results 258' is visible in the top right corner.

2019 CORD ASC-EM Medical Student Advising Resource List

AAMC Apply Smart

<https://students-residents.aamc.org/applying-residency/filteredresult/apply-smart-data-consider-when-applying-residency/>

Point of Diminishing Returns for Entering an Emergency Medicine Residency Program for U.S. MD Applicants

1. Number of Applicants = 11,008. This analysis included U.S. MD Applicants only.
 2. The point of diminishing returns is the point at which the value added by submitting one additional application is reduced relative to the value added by each application before reaching the point of diminishing returns. The addition of one application beyond this point results in a lower rate of return on an applicant's likelihood of entering a residency program.

Advisor Consult Service

<https://www.cordem.org/resources/residency-management/advisor-consult-service/>

Advisor Consult Service

An important resource for any advisors who have specific or sensitive questions about advising students applying in emergency medicine.

This active consult service serves to answer specific questions related to advising individual students, advising non-traditional students or student groups, and general advising concerns.

Advisors may submit their questions by completing the Advisor Consult Request Form

All advising consult conversations will remain confidential.

Please note, this is a service for advisors, and cannot currently accommodate questions directly from students.
